

Motion to Conduct a Referendum
Queensborough Community College (CUNY)
Special Faculty Meeting
December 5, 2012

Whereas, Queensborough's faculty members are committed to providing students with a quality education through its curricular programs; and

Whereas, objections have been raised to the vote of Queensborough's Academic Senate on November 13, 2012 regarding the Pathways curriculum; and

Whereas, according to Queensborough's Governance Plan (Article II.D.2), "The Faculty shall have the right to review any action of the Academic Senate." A special meeting called by a petition of at least ten per cent of the faculty may reconsider actions taken by the Senate. A majority of faculty present at the meeting can then initiate a referendum to be held no more than four weeks later,

Be it resolved that there be a faculty referendum conducted as soon as possible to nullify the actions of the QCC Academic Senate meeting of November 13, 2012 pertaining to Pathways, beginning with the action to accept the Statement of the President as satisfying the terms and conditions of the resolution adopted by the Senate on October 9, 2012 and extending to all other actions voted upon until the adjournment of the meeting.
